Wine from the Hofkellerei (Court-Winery) of the Prince of Liechtenstein

Prince Hans-Adam II of Liechtenstein is not only the Head of State of the Principality of Liechtenstein, located between Austria and Switzerland, but also produces his own wine - something his family, one of Europe's oldest noble families, has been doing for nearly 600 years. Once a powerful member of the Imperial Court of the Holy Roman Empire, the Liechtenstein dynasty also owns vast estates in and around Vienna, including Wilfersdorf Castle in Northeastern Austria, where the Princes of Liechtenstein have been cultivating wine since 1436.
